

Behind the Scenes 2

Life and Death at the Tacoma Narrows 3

How Tubby met his doom on Galloping Gertie.

By Richard S. Hobbs and Gerry Coatsworth Holcomb

History Album 9

Books on parade.

Glittering Prospect 10

Was the Klondike gold rush Washington's economic salvation or merely a dazzling distraction?

By Robert E. Ficken

On the Banks of the Mid-Columbia 17

A survey of human history at Celilo.

By William G. Robbins

Invasion of the Boardheads 24

A new variety of "anthropomorphic amphibians" now calls the Columbia River home.

By Andrew H. Fisher

From the Collection 34

A century-old trophy.

L. N. Rosenbaum 35

An eccentric businessman whose vision for Seattle's future gave birth to the Paramount Theatre.

By Judith W. Rosenthal

The German Occupation of Fort Lewis 42

Pierce County played host to a group of World War II prisoners of war.

By Steve Dunkelberger

Retrospective Reviews 44

The novels of William Attaway.

By Peter Donahue

Additional Reading 45

Columbia Reviews 46

Correspondence 48