

Editor's Note/Contributors 2

The talented writers, historians and archivists from around the Northwest whose work appears in this issue.

Collecting Washington 3

Artifacts and stories from the collections of the Washington State Historical Society.

Treaty of Point No Point Necklace (In The Sprit)

The Yakama-Cowlitz Trail

by Judy Bentley

Judy Bentley searches the landscape, memories, old photos—and occasionally, signage along the trail—to help tell the story of an ancient footpath over the Cascades.

Crown Jewel Wilderness of the North Cascades

by Lauren Danner

Lauren Danner commemorates the 50th anniversary of one of Washington's most special places in an excerpt from her book, Crown Jewel Wilderness: Creating North Cascades National Park.

Research, Explore, Photograph, Repeat

by J Tucker

Photographer J. Tucker explores Washington looking for legacies of the WPA.

39 Counties 26

Sharing heritage and history from communities around Washington.

- Agents of Change: Extraordinary Jewish Women of Washington State
- Washington DAHP Cemetery Grant Program, June 29, 2018
- Seattle neighborhood historian blog leads to a book project
- Jefferson County Heritage Capital Projects helps strengthen community history

Noteworthy 28

The best of books and other media about Northwest history.

- Columbia Conversations: Podcast online
- Chief Seattle and the Town that Took His Name, by David Buerge
- WSHS Workshop: Fort Walla Walla Museum, Oct 1-2, 2018
- Washington Gallery: Armistice Rings Out Across the Palouse

Used Books 30

The Historical Romances of Zola Ross

Peter Donahue turns back the pages of Northwest books and authors from the past.

Reference Desk 31

Additional resources for learning more about the content in this issue.

Maps & Legends 32

Activist Beach Hike 1958

Exploring places and placenames around Washington and the Old Oregon Country.

On the Cover: “Cowlitz Valley – Tatooch Range” is the description of this hand-colored glass lantern slide from the Tacoma Public Library, circa early 1900s. The Tatoosh Range (modern spelling) is not far from Mount Rainier, and this image appears to include the geologic features known as Pinnacle Peak (on the left) and The Castle. This slide and many others were donated to the library by Tacoma-born Donald H. Cooper.