"Benton County Opening Day"
Benton County will ring in the centennial with a ceremony in the Superior Courtroom at the Benton County Courthouse in Prosser.
Beginning with a ceremony at 11:00 a.m., in remembrance of Veteran's Day, the kick-off to the centennial will include a ground breaking ceremony for the "Prosser Pathway Project," near Tom Detches home. The Governor's proclamation will be followed by a reading of the history of Prosser by Inez Thompson, local historian. Roberta Rincker will summarize centennial events planned for Benton County and will present official centennial flags to county officials. Opening Day plans call for Benton County to honor four 100 year old citizens plus a balloon release followed by refreshments at the courthouse.
