

COOPER PROGRAMS

FIRST FRIDAY GALLERY TALK: COOPER

Friday, September 6, 3pm

Free with admission

Curators Gwen Whiting and Fred Poyner give a behind-the-scenes look at the making of the COOPER exhibit. From tracking the story to securing rare artifacts, this team will tell you the "how" behind investigating one of the state's greatest unsolved mysteries.

FORENSICS 101

Saturday, October 26, 2013, 10:30am – 3pm

Pre-registered program - $20 per class, discount for additional classes

Become a detective and use science to solve crimes and develop real spying equipment in Forensics 101. Four different lessons will be offered - Fingerprints, Code Cracking, Powers of Observation and DNA Evidence. Sign up for all of them or just one! For youth grades 4 to 8.

Presented by the Pacific Science Center.

INVESTIGATION TECHNIQUES: 1971 TO PRESENT DAY

Saturday, November 16, 2013, 1pm

Free with admission

Seattle Police Officer James Ritter presents the history of crime investigation from the time of the Cooper hijacking in 1971 to today.

Presented in partnership with the Seattle Metropolitan Police Museum.

THANKSGIVING WEEKEND: If you wish to come to both programs, pay $15 to attend both days. If you only wish to attend one of the Thanksgiving weekend programs, normal museum admission rates apply.

GEOFFREY GRAY, AUTHOR OF SKYJACK, THE HUNT FOR D.B. COOPER

Friday, November 29, 2013, 2pm

An author and a Contributing Editor at New York Magazine, Gray speaks about the research and conclusions he reached as featured in his well known book about the Cooper skyjacking.

COOPER SYMPOSIUM

Saturday, November 30, 2013, 9am – 2pm

Presentations on the history of this Northwest mystery by historians and authors.

THE HISTORY AND CULTURE OF THE FLIGHT ATTENDANT

Saturday, January 4, 2014, 1pm

Free with museum admission

A presentation and discussion with Katherine Browne, Assistant Registrar at the Museum of Flight. This presentation is based on the exhibit "Style in the Aisle" the Museum of Flight hosted and provides a short history of attendant uniforms as it exemplifies the culture of the era. The presentation is followed by a panel discussion featuring flight attendants who were working for the airlines in 1971.