artifact: a three-dimensional object made by people

What artifact have you chosen to learn from? Name it or give a short description of it here:

________________________________________________________________________

Sketch your artifact in the box below:

Who made this artifact? How do you know?

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________
Field Notes: Artifact Analysis

Who used this artifact? How do you know?
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________

How was this artifact used? How do you know?
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________