

History Commentary 2

Rising tide of interest in a magnificent heritage.

By John McClelland Jr.

When History Was News 4

Lewis and Clark were not legends in their own time.

When Russians Landed in Vancouver 5

The story of an epic transpolar flight, 50 years ago.

By Paul Spitzer

When "Ma" Preached in Kelso 13

Money, sex, and preaching are not a new concoction.

Yakima and Justice Douglas 14

A famous—but not a favorite—son.

By Robert W. Mull

The Unspoiled Northwest 21

Some of the best paintings of the area's earliest artists.

By David M. Buerge

Climbing Rainier With Curtis in 1909 29

The Mountaineers' famous 79-person climb.

When Washington Dared Build a Magnificent Capitol 38

And Governor Hartley waved a spittoon and denounced it.

By J. Kingston Pierce

Columbia Reviews 46

History Album 48

When the earliest nuns went begging.