

History Commentary 2

A late start does not make history insignificant.

By John McClelland Jr.

The Grand Olympic 3

Seattle's triumph of the 1920s is given new life.

By Nancy Allison Wright and Barbara Aydelott

Pig War Letters 11

A romantic lieutenant's account of the San Juan crisis.

By Keith A. Murray

In Search of Chief Moses' Lost Possessions 21

From the chief's plundered grave the trail leads to New Zealand.

By Robert H. Ruby and John A. Brown

No Wrath Like That of an Indian Chief Scorned 29

Oral interview with Isabelle Arcasa about the famous Moses.

By Isabelle Arcasa

When History Was News 31

In 1804, a Louisiana Purchase party makes the news.

The Cannonball 32

The little railroad that saved Olympia.

By Arthur O. Dwelley

The Loser Who Won 38

Gil Dobie, University of Washington football coach extraordinaire.

By Robert S. Welch

Columbia Reviews 46

History Album 48

Technology meets the barnyard in 1930s Redmond.