

History Commentary 2

How much do we care?

By John McClelland Jr.

Glory Days of Vaudeville 3

Turn-of-the-century Seattle was a hotbed of the liveliest of stage arts.

By Nancy Allison Wright

The Hawaiian Connection 10

Our ties to the islands began two centuries ago, and continue today.

By J. Richard Nokes

The Long Wait for Statehood 18

Statehood was slow—very slow—in coming to Washington and Idaho.

By Merle Wells

Timber History in Watercolors 24

Robert Chamberlain's paintings, now on display at the Society museum, show the colorful early history of Northwest logging.

The Year U. S. Grant Spent in Washington 26

An excerpt from a new biography.

By Charles G. Ellington

Washington Lights Up 33

Electricity's debut in the Northwest was charged with controversy and challenge.

By Robert C. Wing

Original Governor's Mansion 40

In the Northwest's first historic preservation fight, preservation lost.

By Norman Johnston

Columbia Reviews 46

History Album 48

Fill 'er up at the Teapot Dome.

When History Was News 49

Captain Kendrick reports on island discoveries, Indian attacks, and the fur trade.