

Frank S. Matsura 2

This turn-of-the-century Japanese immigrant helped put Okanogan Count on the map.

By JoAnn Roe

Sailors' Scourge 9

Early maritime explorers in the Pacific Northwest battled more than the elements—scurvy was their unrelenting enemy.

By Jacqueline Williams

From the Collection 13

The road to Attalia.

Ballyhoo? 14

Could J. Walter Thompson possibly have understated the many and varied charms of the Far Corner?

By Beth Kraig

History Album 19

A 1920s forest service version of the car phone.

Whitman County Grit 20

No noose is good noose.

By Jean F. Hankins

John Slocum 27

His "death" experience brought the Indian Shaker Church to life.

By Robert H. Ruby and John A. Brown

The Itinerant West 33

Casual laborers from California to Canada played an important role in the development of the resource frontier.

By Evelyne Stitt Pickett

Correspondence 39

Frederick Kurt Kirsten 40

Saxon schoolboy turned Northwest engineering professor/inventor.

By Mark Levinson

Columbia Reviews 46