

Nor Any Drop to Drink 2

Potable water was not always easy to find on the Overland Trail.

By Jacqueline Williams

The Old Skagit Tour 7

The J. D. Ross brainchild that successfully promoted the concept of public-owned utilities in Seattle.

By Paul C. Pitzer

From the Collection 16

"If a fire bomb hits the house..."

The Wreck of the Valencia 17

Tragedy struck this Victoria-bound steamship when it went aground on the coast of Vancouver Island.

By John Frazier Henry

Brookfield 24

The town that vanished.

By Ray Fadich

What's in a Name 26

How local industry and trade influenced the naming of some of Washington's schools.

By James D. Keyser

History Album 34

Sea Haven, the terminal metropolis.

Timber & Water 35

Lumbering in Cowlitz County.

By Robert Ficken

Thorp Gristmill 43

A grassroots restoration project that grew—and grew.

By Yvonne Prater and Robin Schmith

Columbia Reviews 46

Correspondence/Additional Reading 48