

From the Editor 2

History Commentary 3

The history of the Pacific Northwest History Conference.

By George A. Frykman

Balloon Bombs & Submarines 6

Japanese attacks on the Pacific Coast during World War II injured few but frightened many.

By Marc K. Blackburn

George Bush of Tumwater 14

Mulatto pioneer and founder of the first American settlement on Puget Sound.

By Darrell Millner

History Album 20

"Mother says, 'Next year.'"

Supply Line to the New Frontier 21

The Mexican mule pack system brought food and supplies to early Northwest mining districts.

By Erasmo Gamboa

Lewis & Clark's Water Route to the Northwest 29

The expedition that ended the search for a northwest passage.

By Merle Wells

Josef Scaylea 32

A photographer whose work captures the essence of the Pacific Northwest.

By Howard Giske

From the Collection 38

Mount Rainier, home of the 1935 Winter Olympic Trials.

The Snoqualmie Indians as Hop Pickers 39

Puget Sound Native Americans turned to seasonal farm work to supplement their dwindling traditional resources.

By Kenneth Tollefson

Correspondence/Additional Reading 45

Columbia Reviews 46