

History Commentary 4

The new western history—still alive and kicking.

By Richard White

Steel Rails and Fish Scales 7

The Yakutat & Southern Railway ran on a schedule governed by the tides.

By William Alley

History Album 11

Thirsty?

Diamond in the Rough 12

Camp Parsons on Hood Canal has been the summer retreat of Seattle-area Boy Scouts for over 75 years.

By Michael Bruce Johnson

Washington's First Lights 19

As maritime traffic grew along the coast of Washington Territory, so did the need for lighthouse beacons.

By Sharlene and Ted Nelson

Columbia's Country 24

The search for a sustainable economic future continues in communities along the Columbia River.

By William G. Robbins

From the Collection 31

Depression-era farm workers.

The Battle of Wapato 32

Diverse forces combined to try to force Japanese tenant farmers out of this agricultural community.

By Thomas H. Heuterman

The Oregon Trail 39

The overland trail was a "water route" after all.

By James Ronda

Correspondence/Additional Reading 45

Columbia Reviews 46