

From the President 2

History Commentary 3

A board member looks back at the Society's last 10 years.

By Charles Twining

They Staggered as if They Were Drunk 6

The Yakutat Bay earthquakes of September 1899.

By William Alley

Uncle Sam's Response to the Great Depression 14

A pictorial record of the New Deal program that put unemployed Washingtonians on the job.

By Carlos A. Schwantes

Oceanography Comes to the University of Washington 20

Thomas G. Thompson and the creation of the first marine sciences school in the Northwest.

By Victor B. Scheffer with Richard M. Strickland

Mary Richardson Walker 26

A glimpse into the life of one of the Oregon Country's first women missionaries.

By Joyce W. Prairie

Negotiations or Dictations? 32

Why did Isaac Stevens's Chehalis River treaty council fail to produce a signed agreement?

By Cary C. Collins

History Album 40

Motorcycle madness.

Wooden Money 41

The Depression-era scrip from Tenino that became famous around the world.

By Arthur Dwelley

Correspondence/Additional Reading 45

Columbia Reviews 46