

From the Editor 2

History Commentary 3

Memories of a summer spent dredging for gold in Alaska.

By Tyre A. Newton

The Search for the Tonquin 6

After 190 years, the site of the Astoria settlement ship's destruction remains a mystery.

By E. W. Giesecke

The Red Shield Inn 12

This historic building escaped the wrecking ball three times before it became the home of the Fort Lewis Military Museum.

By Alan H. Archambault

Play Ball! 14

The Seattle Pilots brought major league baseball to the Pacific Northwest.

By Kurt Schaefer

History Album 23

Beard, boots, blue jeans...and Jipp.

Helmi 24

The early years of Helmi Juvonen, a major artist of the "Northwest School," as revealed in her correspondence.

By Wesley Wehr

T. F. McElroy 32

This red-bearded pioneer came west to seek his fortune and found it in the fledgling town of Olympia.

By Harry McElroy Strong

From the Collection 38

The Whatcom County Nine 39

Why was this group of Metis families singled out for prosecution—or is that persecution?

By Peyton Kane

Correspondence/Additional Reading 45

Columbia Reviews 46