

From the Editor 2

History Commentary 3

A windfall for educators: The Lewis & Clark Bicentennial.

By Robert C. Carriker

Bella Weretnikow 6

Seattle's first Jewish female attorney.

By Judith W. Rosenthal

The Palouse Mammoths 11

"A long road from Palouse Peat Bog to Chicago's Field Museum."

By Jake Nisbet

From the Collection 17

Land of opportunity, land of truth

Captain's West 18

The Lewis and Clark expedition set the standard for army exploration in the West.

By James P. Ronda

Jose Mozino & Archibald Menzies 24

Two preeminent naturalists meet at Nootka Sound, a crossroads of 18th-century Enlightenment science.

By Iris H. W. Engstrand

The Hanford Engineer Works Village 29

The combined forces and factors that produced Richland also created a blueprint for the modern American suburban community.

By David W. Harvey & Katheryn Hill Krafft

Lincoln County Courthouse 36

Two towns vie for possession of this "hot seat" of local government.

By David L. Chapman

Correspondence & Additional Reading 41

Columbia Reviews 42

To Our Members 44