

To Our Members 2

History Commentary 3

Changing attitudes about preservation.

By Lawrence Kreisman

Searching for Point Lewis 6

A history sleuth solves the mystery of William Clark's lost landmark.

By Allen "Doc" Wesselius

From the Collection 11

Where the grapevine twineth....

An Unlikely Champion 12

Jefferson Davis's vision for uniting the American landmass, east to west, under one flag.

By Karen Meador

The Case of the Mullan Road 22

Recording new and existing place names and documenting the landscape were part of the surveying work of early road construction crews.

By Ronald E. Grim and Paul D. McDermott

Maud Lillie Bolin 29

A pioneer of aviation for Washington women and Native Americans, this Yakama woman was also a cowgirl, rodeo performer, drama coach, and community activist.

By Lynn E. Bragg

History Album 33

The Boerhave Sisters Orchestra, aka the Mystic Five.

The Cattle Battle 34

Dairy cows were essential to the success of Pacific Northwest homesteaders.

By Laurie Winn Carlson

Alexander Ross's Koran 41

An unexpected find in a fur trader's library.

By Edward W. Nolan

Columbia Reviews 44

Notices/Additional Reading 46