

From the Editor 2

History Commentary 3

Grandmother's river.

By Eugene A. Wiggins

A Hard Day's Night 6

"Beatlemania" takes Seattle by storm in 1964.

By Patrick F. Diviney & Michael Allen

Seattle's Night of Destruction 12

The 1915 Memorial Day explosion in Elliott Bay brought an early version of Kristalnacht to the Seattle area.

By Thomas C. Buckley

Making a Museum 17

A new home for Washington history.

By Stephen Most

Context Meets Form 20

The design of the new Washington State History Museum is a study in relationships.

By Arthur W. Andersson

Behind the Scenes 29

The exhibit project manager and curator gives an insider's view of what went into the creation of the "History of Washington" exhibit.

By Maria Pascualy

From the Collection 33

The Society's new collection of business letterheads contains many "miniature works of art."

Spokane's 1936 Olympian 34

Attending the Berlin games was a dream come true for Mary Lou Petty.

By Doris H. Pieroth

Day of Decision 41

The Oregon Treaty of 1846 was 30 years in the winning.

By Gus Norwood

Columbia Reviews 44

Additional Reading 46