

Behind the Scenes 2

History Commentary 3

An author's insights into the history behind his historical novel.

By Les Eldridge

Bellingham Bay & British Columbia 6

A small railroad with big ideas....

By George T. Foster

History Album 15

Pioneer zoo.

Arming the Soviets 16

The Pacific Northwest played an important role in providing our Russian allies with Lend-Lease materiel during World War II.

By William E. Saxe

Inland Military Empire 22

The armed services found the Spokane area an attractive setting for an inordinate number of World War II support facilities.

By Carolyn Hage Nunemaker

From the Collection 28

A letter home from the Klondike.

Mountains of Eternal Snow 29

Lewis and Clark recorded spotting five dormant volcanoes in the Cascade Range during the Columbia River portion of their journey.

By Allen "Doc" Wesselius

Celebrity Sea Captain 34

A reporter discovers how much of novelist Ed Van Syckle's "Captain Peasley" was based on fact and how much on fancy.

By Joe Follansbee

Thomas Jefferson Miller 38

One of Washington's most radical state senators.

By Jon S. Holdaway

Retrospective Reviews 44

The novels of Alan Hart.

By Peter Donahue

Additional Reading 45

Columbia Reviews 46