

From the Editor 2

History Commentary 3

Yellowstone needs its trains back.

By Alfred Runte

Ellen Powell Dabney 8

Mother of the home economics movement in Washington.

By John Daughters

Tall Timber 12

Washington's lumber industry owes a measure of its success to hardworking Japanese immigrant loggers and millworkers.

By Jesse Clark McAbee

History Album 17

William H. Gilstrap.

Audubon's Western Woodpeckers 18

Expansionist science in young America.

By Gregory Nobles

The Death of Peter Stanup 24

Was it an accidental drowning or the result of a murderous plot?

By Nathan Roberts

From the Collection 32

Billions of postcards.

Menace in the Sky 33

The little-known story of an attack on American soil during World War II.

By Mac Carey

Snohomish County 36

George Vancouver claims Everett for King George.

By Charles P. LeWarne

Retrospective Reviews 42

The Palouse novels of Elizabeth Marion.

By Peter Donahue

Additional Reading 43

Notices 44

Columbia Reviews 46