

From the Editor 2

History Commentary 3

The Governor's Mansion centennial.

By Gerry Alexander

When Papa Was a Delegate 6

Harry Espy heads to the 1912 Republican National Convention.

By Sydney Stevens

Ebenezer R. Roberts 15

A talented and dedicated gardener whose legacy lives on in three of Tacoma's most beautiful public parks.

By Jenn Chushcoff

From the Collection 22

"An adventure into fairyland."

Miners at Work 23

Jacob Elshin's art for the people—at the Renton Post Office.

By Bernice L. Thomas

Grist for the Mill 27

The rise and fall of Washington's flour milling industry.

By Norman Reed

Online Image Collections 31

Railroad posters.

McLoughlin's Grand Jury 32

A miscarriage of justice on the fur trade frontier.

By Steve A. Anderson

Celilo Village 40

Beset by an inexorable wave of American "progress," this ancient Indian community had to struggle to survive.

By Katrine Barber

Retrospective Reviews 44

The works of June Burn.

By Peter Donahue

Additional Reading 45

Columbia Reviews 46

Correspondence 48