

History Commentary 2

Going to Seattle.

By Janet Grimes

Eddie Bentz 5

One of the most prolific bank robbers of the 1930s called Tacoma his hometown.

By Mavis Amundson

McGraw Square 10

One of Seattle's smallest parks honors one of its biggest boosters.

By Steven E. Houchin

Image Collections Online 13

Women in Washington history.

Modern Medicine Comes of Age 14

The Alaska-Yukon-Pacific Exposition brought Seattle's public health issues to the fore and touted recent medical advances.

By Cathy Lykes

From the Collection 21

Schrag and Elmer's general store.

A Women's Place 22

With the birth of the 1970s feminist movement, lesbianism came out of the closet in Seattle.

By Gary L. Atkins

Fort Walla Walla 28

The U.S. Army post that was built not once but three times.

By Steve Charles Plucker

Retrospective Reviews 36

The Northwest memoirs of Floyd Schmoe.

By Peter Donahue

Additional Reading 37

Columbia Reviews 38

Correspondence 40