

History Commentary 2

When rhododendrons rain again, al-ki.

By Bill Barker

Votes for Women! 5

How winning the vote for Washington women helped turn the tide for women's suffrage on a national scale.

By Rebecca Mead

History Album 12

Artist Irene Muir McHughs.

James W. Washington Jr. 13

A painter and sculptor for whom art and activism were closely intertwined.

By Susan Noyes Platt

Image Collections Online 19

Natsiclane.

Mount Rainier National Park 20

Nature as a commodity—the place where preservation and conservation converge.

By Sara Almasy Porterfield

From the Collection 26

'Tis the season.

David Thompson's Columbia River 27

Commemorating the contributions of Canada's "master surveyor."

By JoAnn Roe

Trampling Kamiakin's Gardens 30

Did Theodore Winthrop have a hand in the late-19th-century social and economic demise of the Yakama Nation?

By Chad Wriglesworth

Retrospective Reviews 36

The memoirs of Martha Hardy.

By Peter Donahue

Additional Reading 37

Columbia Reviews 38