

History Commentary 2

A hotel maid takes on laissez-faire.

By Gerry L. Alexander

Laura Belle Downey Bartlett 5

A Puget Sound pioneer who labored to preserve the Chinook trade language.

By Nancy Covert

Cherokees on the Columbia? 8

The federal government's Indian removal policies sparked a proposal to transplant the Cherokee Nation to the mouth of the Columbia River.

By Tim Alan Garrison

History Album 15

History in motion.

Following the Paper Trail in Washington's Historical Archives 16

A sampling from the priceless legacy held in trust for posterity and a nod to the people and places that preserve it.

By Lorraine McConaghy

From the Collection 21

Dear Mom and Dad.

Hal Sylvester 22

First chief ranger of the Wenatchee National Forest.

By Judy Bentley

Columbia Reviews 28

Retrospective Reviews 30

The Puget Sound novels of Patricia Campbell.

By Peter Donahue

Additional Reading 31