

History Commentary 2

The Horse Slaughter Camp monument.

By John Trombold

Skamokawa Creamery 7

How “progress” brought success and then failure to a dairy farmers’ cooperative in Wahkiakum County.

By Irene Martin

From the Collection 13

Gold star mother.

Fugitive or Political Refugee? 14

A disillusioned Vietnam veteran stuck to peaceful antiwar activism in Pullman until four student protesters died at Kent State University.

By Michael Cardinal

Anson G. Henry 21

Lincoln’s friend and confidant, the good doctor preferred politics to medicine and became one of the president’s closest ties to the Northwest.

By Richard W. Etulain

Retrospective Reviews 28

Sir Boss by Ralph Bushnell Potts.

By Peter Donahue

Correspondence & Additional Reading 29

Columbia Reviews 30

History Album 32

The Mountaineers take a break.