

History Commentary 2

A most uncivil Civil War—registering Walla Walla for the draft in 1864.

By Edwin Eells, edited and introduced by Cary C. Collins

The Main Street Spirit of JCPenney 8

How a man practicing the Golden Rule turned a single store into a ubiquitous retail chain for Washington shoppers.

By David Delbert Kruger

From the Collection 16

Horse power....

In the Spirit 17

Ten years of celebrating contemporary Native American art at the Washington State History Museum.

By Lynette Miller

History Album 21

Fly-fishing on the Skykomish River.

Recipes and Reporting 22

Female food writers and their pen names loomed large in newspaper women's pages before the 1970s.

By Kimberly Wilmot Voss

Playing Indian 27

The Tacoma Ladies' Musical Club embraced the Indianist Movement, which incorporated Native American songs into the Western music idiom.

By Michael Berry

Retrospective Reviews 32

The later novels of Archie Binns.

By Peter Donahue

Additional Reading 33

Columbia Reviews 34