

History Commentary 2

Emily Peone and the legend of Elk's abode at Steptoe Butte.

By Richard D. Scheuerman and Clifford E. Trafzer

A Decade of Turmoil 4

Conservatives and liberals duked it out in the '60s for domination of Washington's Republican Party.

By Gene Kopelson

History Album 12

A stop in Skokomish.

Fred Shiosaki 13

Son of Issei immigrants, native of Spokane, decorated veteran of the legendary 442nd Regimental Combat Team.

By John C. Hughes

From the Collection 21

Edward H. Latham on the Colville Reservation.

Targeted for Deportation 22

After the 1912 Seattle tailors' strike, business interests sought to have labor radical Becky Beck deported on trumped-up charges of immorality.

By Heather Mayer

Retrospective Reviews 28

Three Northwest proletarian novels.

By Peter Donahue

Notices & Additional Reading 29

Columbia Reviews 30