

'40s FAMILY JOURNAL

Look in the Hard Times & Homefront sections

FIND THESE THINGS:

KIMONO

HOOVERVILLE SHACK

POTATO PICKER'S BELT

WOMAN RIVETER

SHIPYARD WORKER'S LEATHER VEST

MONOPOLY GAME

B-17 FRAME

BONUS:

FINISH THE STORY BY ANSWERING THESE QUESTIONS:

? When your father comes home, where will he work?

? Will your mother keep her job building airplanes?

? Will your friend, Henry Hashimoto, come home?

YOUR MISSION: TO WRITE THE STORY OF A WASHINGTON FAMILY

1934: Your family lives in Puyallup, but your father is out of work. He leaves for Coulee City to get work on the _____.

1941: The Japanese military bombs
A. LOS ANGELES B. PEARL HARBOR C. SEATTLE and the United States enters _____.

Your father and older brother enlist to fight for their country.

1942: Your Japanese-American neighbors, the Hashimotos, are forced to go to an _____. It is sad to see your friends taken away.

1942: Your mother and your oldest sister take jobs as riveters at
A. KAISER SHIPYARD B. BOEING C. A GROCERY STORE .
They help build _____.

1943:
After school, you and your younger sister collect _____
to do your part for the war effort.

List the things you collect:

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____

1944: For people on the homefront, dairy products, gasoline, meat, and tires are all _____.

1945: Two bombs are dropped by the U.S. on _____.
This helped end the war.

HARD TIMES & HOMEFRONT I