Alignment of OSPI - Classroom Based Assessments (CBAs) and History Day Projects

	Classroom Based Assessments	History Day Projects
The state of Washington has approved National History Day as an assessment tool for teachers to use to meet state required social studies classroom-based assessments.
Goal	Designed to help schools and districts determine whether students have met the social studies learning standards.	Assist teachers and schools in meeting educational standards by encouraging student participation in portfolio-building and outcome-based learning activities.
Objectives for Students:	Employ critical thinking skills and engage students in their own individual analysis of a particular context or topic [Students] develop a position on an issue, event, or question, include background on the issue, event, or question, provide reasons and evidence for the position, and cite sources used to develop and support the position. Students present their work in a cohesive paper or presentation Teachers can target important reading and writing standards in their instruction	Develop critical thinking and problem-solving skills that will help students manage and use information effectively now and in the future Students work with and analyze historical documents and other primary source material Students provide analysis and interpretation of historical data in addition to an accurate description. Students reflect historical perspective--the causes and consequences of an event, or the relationship of a local topic to larger events The entry should have a strong thesis or argument. Students demonstrate an understanding of the historical context--the intellectual, physical, social, and cultural setting of the topic. The annotated bibliography demonstrates solid research. Students express themselves creatively through presentations of historical topics in various formats Develop student research and reading skills and to refine student presentation skills in writing, visual projects and performances

Important considerations for Planning to Bridge—items that may not be obvious at first glance.

History Day Projects	Classroom Based Assessments
Performance Projects	A Performance CBA must be supported in one of two ways: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• A written paper or script that contains all the rubric elements OR</li> <li>• A videotape of the performance, which can be used for scoring the rubric.</li> </ul>
Poster Board (Also Documentary and Website projects)	All elements of the rubric must be contained on the board in writing in order to be scored. In other words, the Poster Board must stand alone in the same way a CBA paper stands alone. (Citations may be separate.)
Scoring elements: Text is clear, grammatical, correct spelling Maintains length requirement	Conventions, organization, and style are not formally evaluated when using the CBA rubric to determine proficiency. However, OSPI recommends that teachers use a separate writing rubric to supplement the scoring of responses to the CBAs.

ACCURACY RUBRIC

The Accuracy Rubric is an often forgotten underlying rubric that applies to all parts of all CBA rubrics as it addresses the accuracy of the content of a CBA. It shows how to score responses that appear to meet a rubric (e.g. gives 2 examples) but contain some errors or inaccuracies (e.g. wrong date, wrong location, errors in citation).

From the OSPI website: For a response to earn any credit, the information provided for a particular criterion must be accurate. The following is the supplemental criterion to be used in conjunction with the CBA rubric when the response contains inaccuracies. (This rubric indicates the maximum score possible for any CBA rubric element if inaccuracies exist.)

4 - Excellent	3 - Proficient	2 - Partial	1 - Minimal
The response contains no inaccuracies.	The response contains a few minor inaccuracies that do not contradict or weaken the overall response.	The response contains several minor inaccuracies or one or more major inaccuracies that contradict or weaken the overall response.	The response is largely inaccurate.
