

SPRING 2010 – VOL. 24 NO. 1

History Commentary 2

Roll on, Columbia.

By Teresa R. Herlinger

Bordering Reality 3

For early customs and immigration officers, the challenges of enforcing the international boundary at Sumas were large and numerous.

By Mary C. Greenfield

History Album 8

Yukio Morinaga's "Smoke and Steam."

Bobbi McCallum 9

Before her tragic death in 1969 this Seattle P-I writer won national journalism awards for her reporting on women's issues.

By Kimberly Voss

From the Collection 15

"My Dear Cusin...."

From Wilderness to Wonderland 16

Did the Alaska-Yukon-Pacific Exposition surpass all previous world's fairs in beauty—as its promoters promised?

By Kathy Mendelson

The Longview Homesteads 22

One of FDR's New Deal programs brought agriculture into the urban landscape.

By Robert M. Carriker

Image Collections Online 29

Private Republic 30

A law unto itself, the Hudson's Bay Company played its own game by its own rules.

By André Peñalver

Retrospective Reviews 36

The poetry of Mary J. Elmendorf.

By Peter Donahue

Additional Reading 37

Columbia Reviews 38